

DREAM JOB ACCORDING TO STRENGTHS

6C

Successful people develop their character strengths, they are not overly focused on what they cannot do. In the first column below you see a list of the SIX Strength Groups.

In the third column you see the example of how a person might behave according to which strength they have when they go shopping.

In the middle column write in what you think would be a person's dream job depending on which the strength they have (described in the left column).

	IF I HAD THESE STRENGTH : ↓ ↓	MY DREAM JOB MIGHT BE ↓ ↓	(EXAMPLE) When I am shopping I WILL: ↓ ↓
1	wisdom strengths → loving to learn , being open-minded, creative and original, curious, wise		look around for interesting offers and people, buy something different than before
2	courage strength , → strong principles when others oppose me. I keep working for a better world- I'm persistent - courageous		look for quality and not be afraid to ask for what I want and walk away if it isn't there
3	relationship values care, kindness, → compassion and social intelligence- good at giving and receiving love		look for people to talk to and help out, listen and be friendly towards people around me
4	justice → leading a group to improve society for everyone. Fairness and good team player.		perhaps be concerned that staff is treated well I would buy something everyone could enjoy
5	temperance – saying no to unhealthy pursuits. Forgiving others and not making a big deal out of it when they are wrong - Caution and humility →		not overspend or buy unhealthy goods. I might arrive on a bike be friendly even when others are not
6	transcendence - gratitude, hope, humour, appreciation of beauty and excellence. Perhaps spiritual or religious →		appreciate the shop, the people and all the wonderful goods. I might make someone laugh or encourage that all will be okay
