

ROLE-PLAY
with DIFFERENT STRENGTHS 2

Use the Justice, Temperance and Transcendence Strengths sheets.

Role-play a variety of situation but each time use a different strength.

Choose a Situation:

- Preparing a party
- Looking for a flat
- Searching for a birthday present
- Planning a journey
- Making food
- Doing housework/garden work
- Your own

Game 1:

One person chooses a strength to act out in the particular situation while the other person just plays along.

The other person or the class guesses which strength is being used.

Game 2:

Both people have secretly chosen a strength to use in the situation.

Again the class (or the other person) guesses which strength.

Game 3:

The teacher gives pupils particular strengths to use in the role-play. (Strengths can be cut out as one card per strength). Other people guess which these are/ The class simply discusses how different we act according to our particular strengths.
